STAFF CONFERENCE AND EXCELLENCE AWARDS

Coventry Staff Conference 2017: registration now open All staff invited to register for this free event

Registration is now open to attend Coventry University's Staff Conference 2017 on Thursday 22 June and Friday 23 June.

This year's conference has a special focus on Achievement, Equality and Diversity. It will combine performance and arts events and activities with a range of different sessions including panels and workshops with colleagues sharing best practice from across the University Group.

Speakers include:

Josette Bushell-Mingo OBE, Visiting Professor, Faculty of Arts and Humanities, singer and artistic director. For more information on Josette please click here.

Jos Beelen, Honorary Research Fellow and Senior Policy Adviser for Internationalisation and researcher in the Faculty of Business and Economics at the Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences. Topics that will be covered at the conference include:

- Promoting equality, diversity and inclusion
- Developing learning communities with a diverse student population

- Empowering international students
- Employability and entrepreneurship
- Technology and its role in promoting achievement, equality and diversity

The conference is free and open to all. Please register by clicking here.
